Review of the Season:

Several players were lost before the season began after a succession of defeats it became difficult to field a full team every week until eventually the club resigned from the Spartan League in January 1933.

Jack 'Junior' Armstrong (photo right) signed amateur forms for Nottingham Forest FC on 17 February 1933 thus following in the footsteps of his illustrious father Jack Armstrong. He is described in the Nottingham Evening Post as being 17 years old, 5'11" tall and weighing 11 stones and a left winger who had been signed by KUFC from West Bridgford FC.
